

BELIEF IN GOD AS PROPERLY BASIC

1. Beliefs which are appropriately grounded may be rationally accepted as basic beliefs not grounded on argument.
  - a. Properly basic beliefs characterized

  - b. Properly basic beliefs not arbitrary

2. Belief that the biblical God exists is appropriately grounded.
  - a. The Inner Witness of the Holy Spirit

  - b. Warrant and Christian Belief

  - c. Defeaters and Christian Belief

3. Therefore, belief that the biblical God exists may be rationally accepted as a basic belief not grounded on argument.